

MODO WINS ALBANY HANDICAP IN WHIRLWIND FINISH

Favorite Beats Gauntman By Great Dash in Stretch Fator Rides Chateau Thierry to Victory in Wilton Handicap—Overmatch First in Steeplechase Event.

By ED. CUREY.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 30.—(Modo) captured the Albany handicap this afternoon. Another thrilling spectacle. Gauntman, out in front, leading down stretch, with Fator riding Chateau Thierry to victory in Wilton Handicap—Overmatch First in Steeplechase Event.

The opening murmur was another conviction that none should play a receding favorite. Alexander Hamilton opened at 7 to 1. Looked a sweet price, and all, and he wrote Modo. Inch by inch he crept closer to Gauntman. "Will he catch him?" shrieked the crowd. He must! Then he came. And Modo, with those tremendous strides, glanced into Gauntman's eyes. Then he jumped away, a Kansas cyclone. Wire was only few yards ahead. Let up in bulldog effort. Modo was same as yesterday, faithful were to wait for fourth event for favorite win. Up to that boys blank slip. No encouragement in such action. Therefore, using cheers as Modo stepped pay-off line. Was hot 12-10 edge. Gilmann second choice at 3-1. Gave away too much weight, finished last.

Modo Backers Nervous.

Modo backers felt heat terribly during running of race. Gauntman took flap, opened up gap of five lengths. Perspiration began to pour profusely. Around turn Gauntman stepped along like cullud man passing grave yard at night. In stretch started to falter, then great thriller started. Lot of lady horses met in Wilton Handicap over mile and a quarter. Day to ask if race to go far. Gilmann second choice at 3-1. Gave away too much weight, finished last.

Four beaten favorites yesterday helped to make the crowd thinner after the race. Beautiful weather and all of that, but the terrific assault on bankrolls forced many to spend the remainder of their fortune.

GRIFMEN NOTES

Two-tenths of a point is the margin by which the St. Louis Browns claim third place over the Griffmen today. Carrying the standings out to fractional points the rivals stack up like this:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
St. Louis	64	60	.516
Washington	65	61	.515

New York cut Cleveland's lead down to one full game by yesterday's victory, while the Speakeaters were idle.

Jezabell Zachary is billed to face the Hugmen today, and Manager McBride announces that Johnson will pitch one of the two games at the Polo Grounds Thursday. They contracted a severe cold in Chicago, and is just recovering.

DORVAL RESULTS.

Believing that his ankle was sufficiently strong again, Rice went back to center field as yesterday's game started. But he found the old sprain bothering him the first time he had to chase a fly ball, and switched places with Milan.

McNally pulled a sock of brilliant fielding plays, but Peckinpaugh took the pain when he went back to second to snag Brower's grounder and forced Shanks at second with a back-hand toss to Ward.

Ten men left on the bases indicates how impotent the Griffmen were in the pinches. There was never a time when the nerveless Mays was troubled.

Shanks drew an error in the first when he dropped Garritty's accurate peg to third, which should have caught Ward off the sacks. Evans failed the Yank second baseman, and reversed himself when Hank was unable to hold the sphere.

Pitcher Shore, from Guilford College, North Carolina, reported to Manager McBride yesterday. He will be given a test in batting practice today.

BROOKMONT-MET. GAME CALLED OFF

At a meeting of the independent sandlot series committee last night, it was decided to call off the game between the Brookmonts and Metropolitan scheduled for today in Section B of the unlimited class. A tie game between the Nationals and Warwicks in Section A of the midget class will be played at the Union Station plaza tomorrow, and another tie between the Gibraltar and Emeralds in Section A, unlimited class, will be played at the plaza on Friday.

What Griffs Are Doing

As Jess Willard had known any of the fighting instinct of the proper champion he would have been beyond any doubt. But Willard's only interest in a return match so far seems to be a proper allotment for the loser's end. Being that the affair is of slight importance.

Two Hays and a Rippie.

When the ways are heavy with mire and rut, In November's fogs, in December's snows, When the north wind howls and the doors are shut, There is place and enough for the pains of prose. But whenever a scent from the whitethorn blows, And the jasmine stars at the casement climb, And a Rosalind face at the lattice shows, Then, hey, for the ripple of laughing rhyme! —Austin Dobson.

When the diamond's heavy and out of gear, When there's nothing left but to light the rope; When the magnets meet for the yearly arm, There's place and enough for winter league dope. But whenever the "Big Babe" crowns the slope, Or a Hornaby stands with his mauling mitts, When the Bugs no longer must sit and mope, Then, hey, for the ripple of home run hits!

Another Angle.

Wilson is the middleweight champion throughout New England. Downey is the middleweight champion throughout the Middle West. If the contest goes to a draw, you can imagine the knotty intricacies that will immediately rise up on both hindlegs.

In this case there will be very little to do but have Mike Gibbons meet them both in the same ring at approximately the same moment.

Another answer to "What is the matter with baseball?" might be turned off in the following fashion:—most of the parks are hardly large enough to accommodate the frenzied multitudes.

"Chick" and the Crown.

In the last twenty years Walter J. Travis won two golf championships in succession around 1902 and 1903.
